

Kailash Tour via Simikot

Trip Overview

Kailash Tour via Simikot is the best trek to experience the remote and the tranquil beauty of Nepal and Tibet. The Kailash tours package pass through the rough and isolated part of Nepal to the open lands of Tibet. Therefore, Kailash tour via Simikot is interesting trekking in Nepal and Tour in Tibet. Making your journey through the western highlands of Nepal to the inaccessible parts of the country and across the Tibet border is a memory to keep forever.

Just like any trek in Nepal, the trek to Kailash also starts with a fantastic day tour of UNESCO listed world heritage sites of Kathmandu valley. After that, official trekking commences via a flight to Nepalgunj from Kathmandu. The trek continues to Simikot passing many charming villages and encountering people who have never experienced modern development. The journey passes through the pilgrimage sites and trade links between Nepal and Tibet and finally crosses the border into Tibet. Tour in Tibet starts by taking a detour off the main attraction of Tibet. Get a peek of Garuda valley which the foundation of Tibetan civilization when Bon religion was still practiced before Buddhism was introduced.

Following the tour, next on the itinerary is to follow the trail to Mt.Kailash and Mansarover Lake. Mt.Kailash holds very deep meaning to Hinduism, Buddhism and Jain religion. Every year people practicing this religion make of trip to this place. Thus, both places hold prodigious natural cultural and religious importance. The trek in Tibet formally ends in Lhasa with a cultural tour of Tibet. The Kailash trek via Simikot ends in Kathmandu with a scenic mountain flight from Lhasa.
